The Lost World

The Majestic
(2001) Jim Carrey starred in this feature film that dressed Ferndale as its quaint small town in 1931. Filmed throughout Humboldt County, the main town shots were from the Victorian Village of Ferndale.

The Love Witch
(2016) A modern-day witch uses spells and magic to get men to fall in love with her, in a tribute to 1960s pulp novels and Technicolor melodramas. Filmed on the Arcata Plaza and Eureka.

The Monuments Too Bone
(1994) The music video for Tim McGraw’s hit song from his second album featured the historic Battery Point Lighthouse in Crescent City and its backdrop.

The Tree of Life
(2011) Brad Pitt and Sean Penn starred in this deeply philosophical movie that featured images of dino-saurs in Grizzly Creek State Park, Fern Canyon, and Prairie Creek Redwoods State Park.

The Lost in the Lumberjacks
(1956) This was the first fictional film made in our area. Its production team stayed at the historic Hotel Arcata. Filming of this train heist series took place in Arcata and Eureka.

The Wins of Summer
(2013) Ethan Peck and Monica Gay Harden star in this award-winning film, written/produced/directed by Humboldt local Maria Matteoli and also starred local actor Bob Wells, who appeared in “The Majestic” with Jim Carrey. Filmed in Eureka’s Old Town.

A Wrinkle in Time
(2018) After the disappearance of her scientist father, three peculiar beings send Meg, her brother and her friend into space in order to find him. Filmed in Pacifica Point State Park and Eureka.

Almost Heroes
(1998) Chris Farley and Matthew Perry found themselves filming in Trinidad, Redwood National & State Parks and outside of Willow Creek on the Trinity River in this comedic frontier tale.

Butch’s Lost Coast Tapes
(2012) This biggest thriller filmed in Southern Humboldt on private property and Sequoia Park in Eureka.

Halloween III: Season of the Witch
(1982) This horror sequel utilized a former milk bottling plant in Loleta for its scenes inside the Eel River.

A Death in Granada
(1979) Meant to look like Connecticut, this made-for-TV murder mystery film filmed entirely in Humboldt County: Humboldt County Jail, Ferndale, and Fortuna.

Valley of the Redwoods
(1940) John Hudson, Lynette Bernet and Ed Nelson star as robbers who catch a California lumber company payroll head. Filmed in Arcata and Eureka.

The Gnome Mobile
(1967) The Gnome Mobile cruised along the Avenue of the Giants and Blue Slide Road in Humboldt Redwoods State Park.

After Earth
(2013) The father and son duo, Will and Jaden Smith, crash land onto the Eel River. Filming occurred in Humboldt Redwoods State Park, including Burlington, Fouke’s, Dyerville Giant, Bull Creek and the south fork of the Eel River.

Gun Glory
(1957) A Wyoming cabin and corral were built just for the film. The horse is called Tuffy Ranch outside of Garberville.

Tales of the Mohicans
(1981) In this version, the Mohicans were played by 20 local Yurok tribe members. The exciting canoe chase scene took place on one of the several rivers in Del Norte County while other filming was done by the mountainous area of Lake Earl in Crescent City.

The Lost World
(1997) This horror sequel utilized a former milk bottling plant in Loleta for its scenes inside the Eel River.
